Mice

I think mice
Are vater rice.
Their tail long,
Their face small,
They haven't any chins at all.
They come are pink,
Their teeth are white,
They run about
The house at night.
They middle thing
They shouldn't tough
And no one seems To like them much
But I think mice
Are nice

THE KINGFISHER

How Beautiful the kingfishers are Catching and eating all day long How sad the eaten fishes were To die for a short life
The kingfisher swoops down Plucks its prey out of the water Flies away with gay abandon Soaring into the sky hereafter Time & time again the kingfisher With its long snout swoops down into the water and plucks its prey to soar again into the great blue yonder
What a treat it is to watch Such living & pacification

① Trees

Trees are great, they stand so straight They don't complain when they are kicked They don't eat much they patiently wait For the sun to turn them green Trees are great, they give us shade
And a wicket when we play cricket
The birds to be happy they use them
A place to build nests for their babies.

② Another year is ending It's time to say good bye We're sorry to be going We'd like to tell you why.

Learning isn't always easy It's difficult it's tiring But learning with the new books Is really fun with you.

But holidays are always fun
So put away your books Smile, be happy, playful kids
See how the vacation looks - "Wonderful!"

Value for Money

Once a poor man went to a shop to buy sweets. It was Diwali and he had promised his children that he would give them some sweets. The poor man had very little money and could only afford half a kg of sweets. He asked the shopkeeper to weigh the sweets. The shopkeeper weighed the sweets but kept a finger above the pan with the sweets. The poor man noticed this. The shopkeeper laughed and said, it was so that the man at home would have less weight to carry. He wrapped the sweets in a paper and handed them over to the poor customer. Not to be outdone, the poor man gave the shopkeeper five rupees less than the agreed amount. The annoyed shopkeeper pointed out that he had had paid him less money.

I think in the cascade Looking at the face of the moon Brightens my face from the long line face I feel it as my life's boon so soon

Under go so many struggle Think you have to be nimble Ship pass by looking for treasure Give it you have it, it is you do what, fail. It is just a nail look at it and make it a tooth, do it better hard as a rock get hit a hundred and you make a use.

Reflect you your're the moon in the well, your fellow In you living an import thinking about you for the future dead

High we go with in years the different all the four fire in you as it burns water's cool come as rain and prevent pain Air that flows its head one of the best dead sky so light and spread your knowledge to the world.

I FEAR AND YOU HAVE TO

The mind of mind shrinks.
The faint of mine leaks.
Turn white and black pool comes out the water.
All my faith fly, but still I don't no why

None, close to me, pain me, trust me Fail, all that I know Say what can I do
You if you just like me

Go to all, find a way to out See the sky, and you'll the cloud Make a manny, and hide in a boat Lame over all way in just no time

See your look and other who impress Don't make and come try to touch Lute toward heart and you always get on path I'll be same on you and had only a few.

One night one day
Nothing in tomorrow day Seeking for the best way
No surprise even if you look for long.

You are a wheel, actually made out of steel All around you run, at the final
You say nothing like it was at home
It is the way our hearts go even though, you just please say no.

The mind of mind shrinks.
The faint of mine leaks.
Turn white and black pool comes out the water.
All my faith fly, but still I don't no why

Nature

She gives us food to eat.
She gives us water to drink.
She gives us air to breathe.
She gives us surprising events.
She gives us fascinating moments.
She looks after all her kids.

Now she's tired and needs our help.
You know who she is?

She is our mother nature. Protect her,
Care for her.

Sing sing sing along,
Pretty bells ding their tongue.
Lit lit lit lit lit glow,
Candles go bright & glow.
Pat pat pat your feet,
Cut a cake with much a cheer.
Pray pray pray today,
For our happiness and gay.
Blow blow blow your horn, Jesus christ is just born

My Friend who believes in Ghost

All of us at our boarding school had Pinto was a mission. You see, he believed in ghost. None of the us knew this until some time until one night Pinto found him coming in his bed.
"What's the matter?" asked Pinto.
"There's been a ghost troubling me anxiety," said Pinto.
"What?" said Pinto.
"How?" said Pinto.
Pinto looks round. It was dark but he could make out all the other sleeping peacefully.
"I don't see anything," said Pinto.
The matter went out of hand when Pinto woke up screaming on night. Everyone was frightened out of their wits. Soon the light turned to night when they realized it was only Pinto and his screams for ghosts.

Since Pinto was a special friend of mine, I decided to do something about it. I took him to a world where the spirits. I told him about Pinto's ghost.

The spirits told me to love the matter to him and I went to I came to know from Mr. Srinivas that Pinto had been told many ghost stories by his grand father who lived in a village. Mr. Srinivas arranged for Pinto to see psychologist. But it took nearly a whole year for Pinto to rid himself of his fears. Even now, when he sees a white shape in a dark place he shudders. But then he looks at us and we all laugh together.

I hate my homework

Home work is a big load,
This word makes me very sad.
I always hate it, I can never tolerate it.

Home work makes me ill,
When I do it, my teacher is furious late, I sleep at night still hit all the light.

If I don't, stands my teacher with a stick I look at it and just become sick without doing it with stress, as my program gets less

Depressed my parents, to look at me praised, let me try to be.
I avoid my parents are, yet no time to play, these can I go by.

Still, I felt there is no other way, Day and night, I worked for it, because, I stand on my legs, then I hit it at the way of success.

I give with this trouble in future, I learn to be honest let me sacrifice my enjoyment do that I reach the finish.

Cruelty to animals.

Galloping with liberty,
 Into the hands of cruelty,
 And more reins,
 Have to bear all the pain.

I'm in a cage,
 Which is an outrage.
 I can't fly,
 I want to cry.

Leave us alone,
 We want to go home.
 We don't want your knife,
 We want our life.

Cruelty to Animals

S. Nandini

How cruel are we to animals,
 So they fight with us in the form of mammals.
 So sad to be kept in the zoo, Without allowing them to move.

The animals feel so snaggling,
 When they know the hunters are trapping.
 But the children are happy,
 By seeing the animals shaggy.

NATURE'S MAGIC

In the midst of nature's magic I stand in wonderment taking strength from the marvels of sky and sea and land.

Fire, water, air and earth with their threads, nature weaves the enchantment of life.

We are part of nature's magic inspired by beauty, Sharing the dreams of the world around us.
